Baptists in Europe have taken steps to form a European Baptist Federation to join in a world-wide battle for freedom of religion.

This was the statement at the Monday morning session of the Baptist World Alliance by Dr. W. O. Lewis of London. He spoke to 12,000 messengers gathered here in Cleveland representing every continent and every country of the world.

Dr. Lewis, who is associate general secretary of the Baptist World Alliance spoke on "The Importance of Europe in the World Picture." In part he said: "If Europe were thoroughly Christian the problems of the world would be well on the way to solution. Europe is not only important because of its tremendous population, or because of its great geographical area, but Europe is important to the rest of the world because it is a way of life," he said.

Referring to the question that concerns the Baptists all over the world, separation of church and state, Dr. Lewis asserted that "full religious liberty does not exist where there is a state church." He insisted that "intelligent non-conformists advocate the separation of church and state, not only because they feel they suffer certain disabilities, but because they feel the state churches themselves

Accent On Youth At Alliance Rally Young People Able And Willing Says Joel Sorenson

CLEVELAND, July 23—The younger generation of Baptists had their own moment on the State of the World Baptist Congress tonight. Thousands of young men and women from all over the country and a few from abroad gave a convincing demonstration that the future of the churches well may be secure in the hands of young people dedicated to Christ.

They held a youth rally in the public auditorium Sunday night bringing to a close a week-end that attracted 20,000 delegates to Cleveland for inspiring services of worship. Colorful pageantry of the first Protestant parade in Cleveland in 25 years, and an eye-filling spectacle at the stadium.

Today, 10,000 delegates participated in the Sunday morning service of worship and heard a sermon by a negro Baptist preacher—Rev. Gardner Taylor of Brooklyn, while more than 120 of the ministerial messengers, were guest preachers in Protestant churches of many denominations in Cleveland and nearby cities of Ohio. The main theme of Dr. Taylor's sermon was "segregation."

Youth Secretary Is Speaker

The youth rally, the first in the 45-year history of the Alliance, called upon blond, 34-year old Joel Sorenson, an Alliance youth secretary and member of the City Council of his native Stockholm to deliver the principal address.

"It is a well recognized fact that young people, generally speaking, have acquired a greater ability than in any previous period of history to contribute to the cause of mankind," Sorenson declared in his address "Youth In the Baptist Witness to the World."

"Baptist young people these days are both able and willing to make their contribution to the total Baptist witness to the world. We rejoice in the added recognition given to the young people in the Baptist World Alliance."

He said they echoed the sentiments of a young Baptist at the third young Baptist Congress at Stockholm who said: "We young people do not want to cooperate with the Alliance, we

Baptists Converge On Cleveland 30,000 Attend Rally In Stadium

60,000 LINE STREET TO VIEW MILE-LONG PARADE

By A. L. GOODRICH

Cleveland, Ohio, July 22—Sixty thousand persons lined downtown streets this afternoon to watch Ohio's governor, Frank Lausche, and church dignitaries lead the parade of Faith and Freedom of the World Baptist Congress. The Congress convened earlier at the public auditorium.

Clergymen of different countries, foreign messengers in native dress, and civic and religious organizations swung on to Euclid Avenue, Cleveland's main street, behind police calvary and motorcycle escort.

Following them rode Governor Lausche with Dr. D. R. Sharpe, chairman of the committee on Congress arrangements, and Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, president of the Baptist World Alliance.

The Governor and former mayor of Cleveland almost missed being in the parade but were under fire department escort just as the march was about to begin.

Thirty four lead cars filled with city officials, visiting mayors, officials of the Baptist World Alliance, and honored missionaries and clergymen, followed the governor.

Among those in the cars was a 70-year-old Louisiana messenger with 53 years service as a missionary. Others in the vehicles were Dr. Arnold T. Ohn, Washington, general secretary of the Alliance, riding with Perry B. Jackson, Cleveland municipal judge.

Dr. Alfonso Almedo, former president of the River Plate Baptist Convention in Argentina; Mayor K. A. Bohlken of Fairview Park; Dr. Sanford Fleming, president of the Baptist Theological Seminary, Berkeley, California; Vice Mayor J. W. Barkley of Shaker Heights, and the Rev. George Simpson of Freeport, Nova Scotia and London, England, also rode.

Fifty-one flags of nations and Baptist insignia were carried behind the 36-piece band of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Independence, Ohio, leading the massed flags were the American and Christian Standard.

Stretches of the mile-long trek were lined eight persons deep. Curbs and fountain pedestals at the public

CZECHS ISSUE NEW CHURCH CONTROL DECREE

London—A new decree has been issued by the Czech Communist government giving local civil authorities the right to control all religious activities in their area, including those of religious societies, orders and monasteries.

Signed by Deputy Premier Zdenek Fierlinger, newly-appointed head of the State Office for Church Affairs, the decree extends to local officials the powers which the government assumed under church control laws passed last November.

The decree entrusts the local authorities with the task of controlling religious education, managing religious schools, appointing religious teachers, and supervising religious broadcasts.

Another is that all church-sponsored charitable groups must be supervised by government-appointed inspectors.

According to the decree, local authorities will have full discretion in all matters concerning the nomination or dismissal of clergymen. They will determine the salary and other income of each priest, as well as allowances granted him on the basis of grade and rank. In addition, the authorities will have power over priests' vacations and leaves of absence.

costumed delegation of Americans from the Soviet Ukraine. A dozen Latvians and as many Finlanders marched in native regalia of blouse and sweeping skirts.

Ministers and delegates to the congress joined the line of march at several points.

Upon arrival of the thousands in the parade and 25 or 30 thousand others at the stadium, park of the Cleveland American League baseball team, there were the usual hotdogs, applause, cheers and even the singing of the national anthem; but "something different" came at the conclusion of the singing of the anthem when instead of a cheer for a home run, there was a solemn quiet as 32,000 Baptists were led in prayer by the Rev. Harold Cooke Phillips, pastor of Cleveland's Shaker Heights Baptist Church.

Number of Nations Reaches Peak

Only once before in modern Baptist history (Atlanta, 1939) have as many Baptists assembled in one meeting and never before have so many nations been represented in a meeting of the Baptist World Alliance. This is the eighth World Congress of Baptists since 1905.

As usual, there was a sense of expectancy in the ball park. Something big was about to happen, but this was a different kind of excitement. The Congress Band, under the direction of Mr. Louis Mayer, filled the stadium with religious music and the great choir, said to number 5,000, led by Dr. Cyril Barker, sang praises to God. Instead of the umpire's "Play ball. . ." Alliance president, Dr. Oscar Johnson of St. Louis, called for the roll of nations.

Through a Guard of Honor of the flags of the nations, representatives from 52 countries marched across the ball field, paused briefly as one from each group brought a greeting from his own land.

"We bring you greetings from the Baptist Union of Scotland" came over the loudspeaker as a kitty band marched by. "We bring you greetings from the Baptists of Norway. . . Germany. . . Nigeria. . . and so on a list of colorful groups, many dressed in national costume.

Prolonged applause followed the greeting and appeal from the Czechoslovakian spokesman who pleaded, "Pray for us who are behind the iron curtain." The Russian Baptists of the United States created quite a stir when they thanked God "For the freedom that we enjoy here in the United States." (Russia sent no delegates).

Finland, that has been resisting various pressures, assured that, "We will never deny the name of Christ."

President Johnson then, good-humoredly, expressed appreciation to the Cleveland Indian's Baseball Club for the use of the field and for the free lights and then added, "And I bring you greetings from the St. Louis Browns." (The Browns are last in the American League).

Roland Hayes Sings

In the preliminaries the prominent negro solist, Roland Hayes, sang several numbers including the evidently favorite, "My God Is So High," and Governor Frank J. Lausche, who had been detained from attendance in the afternoon session brought greetings on behalf of the state of Ohio.

In the address of the evening, Dr.

want to be a part of it."

Recounting the Christian work of Baptist young people on five continents Sorenson declared:

"Young Baptists are faithfully laboring everywhere. They are busy preparing themselves for Christian service in different areas of life. They are active along the classical Baptist lines: Evangelism.

Alert To Needs

"They are alert to the social needs of our time. They discuss the need of a righteous economic order, they adventure in social action in many fields. They want to relate the gospel to all parts of life."

It was an all youth program. Miss Gay Herman, of Cleveland, president of the Baptist Youth Fellowship of the American (formerly Northern) Baptist Convention presided. Rev. B. O. Baker was the song leader and an 80-voice choir of Clevelanders sang.

Youth turned partly to drama to convey the message of the rally. "Central City, U.S.A."—a dramatization of the Lord's Prayer, written by Rev. Dr. R. Larue Cober, associate secretary of the Cleveland Baptist Association, was presented.

Baptists are fast learning the importance of arriving at public auditorium on time, as the second day thousands were turned away from the crowded hall, Sunday afternoon.

Edwin McNeil Poteat, Raleigh, North Carolina, spoke on "The Basic Freedom." His Baptist audience had had much to cheer and applaud in the early part of the evening, but there was real response when he declared that religious liberty is threatened and that this threat comes "From a secularist totalitarian state that denies all freedom only to those who surrender to its authority." (Editor's note: Dr. Poteat also urged union of all evangelical churches.)

President Truman Sends Message

Earlier it had been explained that President Harry S. Truman could not be present at the Congress as had been planned because of the Korean crisis and as the audience arose, Alliance President Johnson read the message that President Truman had sent.

Extracts from the President's letter follow:

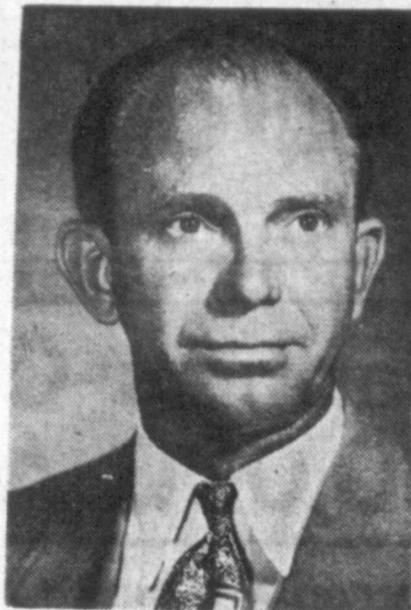

"Americans rededicated to Christian truths must lead the world's fight for continued freedom of man.

"We reject the Communistic teaching that Christianity is untrue; that religion is necessary. It is for us, in these days of doubt and despair, to bear true and valiant witness to the faith of our fathers—the faith delivered to the saints and transmitted to us through long generations of Christian forebears.

"The World-wide character of our Baptist Alliance Assemblage is what gives this gathering its strength, its influence and its opportunity. In Cleveland will be gathered Baptists from many climes, many nations, and all races. To those who have come from our own country and to those journeying from overseas, from the remotest corners of the earth, I would give this warning: The nations of the world—our own included, with its unprecedented wealth and unlimited natural resources—cannot survive materially unless redeemed spiritually."

The President concluded that the struggle the world is in now will be hard and long "But we shall win if we march forward in amity with all Christian forces."

The Congress was convened in Public Auditorium Saturday afternoon by President C. Oscar Johnson, St. Louis, Missouri.

More than 14,000 persons heard the Rev. Frank C. Bryan, Bristol, England, read the opening scripture and the opening prayers by the Rev. Buntura Kimura, Hiroshima, Japan and the Rev. Edward H. Pruden, Washington, D. C. City police estimated thousands more persons were turned away and began at an early hour to move into the stadium for the evening session.

President Johnson introduced state and city dignitaries who welcomed the Congress to Cleveland. Mayor Thomas A. Burke presented the Key to the City to President Johnson declaring that "It could open only the hearts of the people of the city of Cleveland."

Lieutenant-Governor George D. Nye, representing Governor Frank J. Lausche, welcomed the delegates to Ohio; Mrs. Paul Stetler, President of the Women's Council of the Cleveland Baptist Association, Dr. Wade Hampton McKinney, pastor of the Antioch Baptist Church, Cleveland, and Dr. D. R. Sharpe, General Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements welcomed the visitors on behalf of local Baptist groups. Lieutenant-Governor Nye, in his welcome address, said, "If you get into any trouble, I will get you out if it takes 10 years to do it."

The Rev. Johannes Norgaard, vice-president of the Baptist World Alliance and principal of the Baptist Theological Seminary of Tollose, Denmark, responded in behalf of the 52 nations and 48 states represented in the registration in the early hours of the Congress.

Mr. Norgaard reminded the assembly that "millions of our fellow-Baptists around the world are awaiting to hear some word of encouragement and reassurance in this dark and near-chaotic time." In responding to the well wishes of the Cleveland hosts he charged the Baptists assembled to "Live up to the great responsibility that is ours to make our light shine in the darkness."

Society Subject To Change

Dr. Robert J. McCracken, pastor of New York City's Riverside Church, speaking on the subject, "Christianity in the Atomic Age" said, "What makes Christianity a gospel is its affirmation that neither society nor man need stay the way they are. Human nature can be changed. If Christianity affirms anything at all, it is that human nature can be changed, genuinely and permanently changed."

Man has the brain power capable of producing a blue-print for a new world that would rescue mankind from threatened doom, the New York pastor said, but lacks the moral qualities necessary to implement it.

Dr. McCracken said that two costly wars have provided evidence that progress is neither inevitable nor automatic. It has banished, he said, the high hopes of 50 years ago that man was in the process of establishing Utopia; abolishing diseases, banishing poverty, ushering in a year of peace and plenty.

It is not funk but faith that impels the Christian people of the United Nations to hope and pray that the world will not again be plunged into war, Dr. Wilfred L. Jarvis, of Australia, told the afternoon meeting in the keynote address at the opening session.

Nothing that the Baptist World Alliance, Federation of more than 100 conventions and unions in 52 nations meets under "black storm clouds", Dr. Jarvis declared that the peoples of the free nations of the world will not fail if the supreme test comes.

"In this situation", said the pastor of Sydney's Central Church, oldest in Australia, "Baptists like their fellow Christians in other denominations have an unfailing source of inspiration and hope."

As followers of Christ, he added, they have resources of power and courage that are inexhaustible. "They have a witness to give to the people in all lands at a time, such a time as now."

The keynoter declared that "No individual, section or society, nation can attain true greatness of character without following Christ in every area of life."

He suggested that "Those in charge of the ships of state have tried to

THE LILLIPUTIAN HERESY

By CHESTER L. QUARLES
Executive Secretary

Years ago Dr. P. E. Burroughs of the Baptist Sunday School Board, who has gone to his Heavenly reward, preached a sermon on the subject "The Lilliputian Heresy." It made a lasting impression upon the student generation that heard it.

Dr. Burroughs took the story of Gulliver's Travels and retold the part which has to do with Gulliver being tied down by the little people, the Lilliputians. He awoke to find himself tied fast to little sticks driven in the ground.

Several illustrations were impressively used to prove the point that if we "raise the sights" of our people we can do the task easier. He told of a pastor who decided to ask two wealthy people in his church to underwrite the salary of a missionary. He went to the first, a wealthy widow, and asked her to pay one half the total amount. She was not interested. The pastor went away concerned because he knew that she could have done it with ease. The next day he decided to go back and ask her to pay the whole salary for a missionary by herself. She was enthusiastically interested and complied with his request.

This sermon has interested and inspired the writer. Several years ago when pastor in Leland, he was asked to raise one thousand dollars for the Louisville Seminary, his Alma Mater. Because of other large gifts which had been made he was a bit reluctant to present the matter to the deacons and then to the church.

But he remembered the sermon on "The Lilliputian Heresy." The writer decided, after prayer, to ask the deacons to double the amount and recommended to the church that we give two thousand dollars to our three seminaries. They accepted the challenge and more than two thousand and three hundred dollars were raised. Thank God for the sermon on "Lilliputian Heresy"!

How guilty are we of this terrible heresy? Heresy is a hard cold word. The Lord never meant for us to be small, circumscribed or provincial in our thinking. He means for us to think and act like world citizens. Our programs and plans should be on a world wide scale. Our attempts for Christ should be challenging to our people.

How many cases do we know where churches have had little vision when building a new building? They have built for the present and filled the new building immediately with no opportunity for expansion or growth in the future. Far better would it be to build space unusable at the present than to be hindered in the growth of your organization for years because of lack of room. A church debt on the present building will prevent most churches from building for more expansion.

By all means we should carefully analyze our needs and possible growth and build with the future in mind. Write to the Architectural Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee, for suggestions in the light of your survey. Don't just build rooms, build usable space.

The Lilliputian Heresy! Are we not guilty of it when we plan our budgets. So many times we do not promote a financial plan in our churches that will challenge and inspire our people.

We are talking a great deal these days about a 50-50 division of our mission money, state and Southwide. This division of our mission money has challenged many of us. Certainly we should be willing as a state convention to give as much away from home as we keep at home. Mississippi Baptists are doing just that!

Actually our state objects— orphanage, colleges, hospital—state missions, etc.—have suffered because in spite of increased gifts they are receiving a smaller total amount of money. With the buying power of the dollar going down and the allocation going down in total amount, there has been real embarrassment in many places.

What can be done about it? One thing is for every church to go 50-50 in the division of their funds. Fifty per cent kept at home and fifty per cent given to world missions. That would solve the problem.

Quite obviously there are many churches who could not at the present time do that. That should be a minimum goal of our strong and large churches. But most of the smaller churches could give a tithe of its income to outside causes. No strong church should be content with that small a percentage but that is a good beginning mark for many churches.

It seems to the writer that the percentage idea for missions in the church budget is better than a stipulated monthly or annual amount. On the percentage basis everything rises and falls together. It is only fair that way.

Let's not be guilty of the Lilliputian Heresy in the setting of our church budget for this coming year. Let's set a high percentage for world missions! How missionary is your church?

An Inspired Report

In this issue of the Baptist Record, J. E. Lane, Treasurer of the Mississippi Baptist Convention makes his semi-annual report to the churches. This report is one that should encourage and inspire most of the Baptists of Mississippi. Those it will not inspire are those who have had no share in the heartening record.

The record as printed was made by the churches and the members of the churches. The Convention Board office has simply recorded what the people and the churches have reported.

It is a record that should bring shouts of joy from the lips of everyone who helped to make that record, and wails of woe from every Mississippi Baptist who failed to have a share in sending the gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth.

Regardless of the record, we believe that the members of these churches want to have a part toward making possible the great Baptist program. We believe that if someone—the pastor, the Sunday School superintendent, a deacon, the W. M. S. president, or some interested member, had mentioned the matter and urged a collection, somebody would have given something.

Begin now to plan for an offering so that every church may be listed as a giving church in the next list which will probably be printed next January.

Methodists Oppose State Aid For Sectarian Hospitals

Baptists are not alone in their opposition to state aid to sectarian institutions. At the recent Annual Conference of Mississippi Methodists in Galloway Memorial Church, Jackson, resolutions were adopted warning that "Separation of church and state is being endangered by recent near successes in securing tax funds for religious institutions."

Our readers will recall that the State Supreme Court ruled that the Catholic operated Mercy-Street Memorial Hospital in Vicksburg was entitled to share in state hospital construction aid funds. The court ruled the Vicksburg institution is a non-profit organization and operated in line with rules laid down by the state commission on hospital care.

An appeal from the ruling has been filed by the attorney general which claims participation by such institutions is unconstitutional. A decision is not expected before September.

Convention Comment

This first meeting of the greatest body of Christians on earth in a northern city but which is not outside the territory of Southern Baptists, since "the field is the world," was outstanding in many particulars.

From the opposition to Chicago as a meeting place had come the prediction that our presence would not be recognized in such a large, worldly city. However, it did not take long for our great host of people to make our presence known. We heard expressions from numbers of people in various business positions in the city to the effect that they had, for the first time, learned who Southern Baptists are and were amazed at the multitudes of these people from regions south, east and west. The good naturedness and friendliness so noticeable as a characteristic of Southern Baptists had a striking effect in the presence of much less friendly and courteous inhabitants.

The recognition and publicity afforded us by the public press was another powerful evidence of the positive impression we made on the city. Not, to our knowledge, has as much space been devoted to our Convention anywhere else by the daily papers as was true in Chicago.

Never before have we attended a national convention so harmonious as was this meeting. Friction which had seemed almost inevitable did not arise. A unity of spirit and purpose was so evident as to be awe-inspiring. Spiritual fervor ran high. Inspiration permeated the atmosphere. Messengers thrilled to Spirit-inspired messages which sounded the Baptist fundamentals of separation of church and state, inspiration of the scriptures, virgin birth of Christ, New Testament evangelism, freedom from all entangling alliances, Baptist and all else, Christian education, and a program of advance to win the world to Christ.—Editor Obie R. Clew.

Most SBC Churches Have Few Members

Although Southern Baptists have many large churches, some numbering seven and eight thousand members, many of our churches come under the head of small churches.

Porter Routh, Southern Baptist Statistical Secretary, reports: "32.3 per cent of the 27,285 churches in the Southern Baptist Convention have fewer than 100 members; 47.3 per cent have from 100 to 300; only 10.4 per cent have from 300 to 500; 6.5 per cent have from 500 to 1,000; and only 3.5 per cent have about 1,000."

On another page will be found a list of rural churches in Mississippi having a membership of 400 to 1,000.

Even though the majority of our churches are small churches, if we count numbers only, there are no small churches in the sight of God. They were purchased by His blood. The smallest one is precious to Him.

Many churches with few members are doing more per member than some churches with many more members. Most of the small churches have a larger percentage of the folks enlisted, the people know each other better, and everybody knows everybody.

The large church also has many advantages. They have financial resources that makes paid workers possible; larger crowds attract still larger crowds; and more mission projects are feasible.

Wherever our membership is, let's give that church, large or small, the best support we can.

—BR—

JAMES T. GILLESPIE, GREENVILLE, S. C., has been named director of rural work for the Home Mission Board to succeed Dr. John D. Freeman, who has gone to Arkansas as secretary of the Baptist Foundation.

Our Readers Write

Dear "Mr." Goodrich:

It did my heart good to read your splendid editorial on "Father's Day" in this week's Record. It would help a lot of us a great deal if you would write often right out of your heart as you have done in this. As I read it, it seemed like old times.

Dear Brethren:

The response to my recent appeal to Southern Baptist pastors to join men in giving a Book Shower to our preacher brethren in New Zealand and Australia, was so scant at the Southern Baptist Convention that I am induced to make this additional appeal which would include laymen, women and young people.

This is not a charity appeal but is intended as a "Goodwill" gesture because of the difficulties they have in purchasing our American books, on account of the dollar shortage.

Send any book from your library which you think would be of service.

M. E. Dodd
P. O. Box 16

Shreveport, Louisiana.

Comment: This is a worthy cause, Let's Help.

Dear Dr. Goodrich:

This comes to express our deep and sincere appreciation for your most helpful, thoughtful, and generous contribution in the several boxes of books recently received, many of which are so very needed in our library and which are so very valuable as sources of information to our students.

We are truly thankful to God for friends like you who encourage, inspire and have such a deep abiding interest in the Cause of the Great Adventure.

HERBERT L. LANG, Pres,
Mississippi Baptist Seminary

Comment: We deserve no thanks, we do wish to make a suggestion to others. Look over your books and pick out several that you have read and will probably never read again. Send them to Dr. Lang. Our Negro Baptists will appreciate any books you donate.

Dear Brother Goodrich:

I think you are doing a marvelous work with the Record. It is really a must in my pastorate.

Yours in His Service,
Gatewood

ed by the word from Korea. They demonstrate a spiritual craving apparently sharpened by fears for world peace—and a growing recognition that they must turn to a Higher Power for assurance of that peace."

Church leaders in Portland, Ore., observed that with growing world tension, people are turning in increasing numbers to the churches for reassurance and spiritual guidance. Some noted a marked upsurge in attendance since the outbreak of the Korean war.

A check of a dozen Minneapolis churches, of that many different denominations, failed, to disclose any noticeable attendance increase as a result of the war.

However, a number of clergymen commented that although there has been no upsurge in attendance, neither has it fallen off as it customarily does in the summer months. One pastor described attendance as "very good" and another as "pretty good."

BAPTISTS CONVERGE

steer by the waves of personal expediency, the wind of popular opinion or the clouds of vested interests rather than by the everlasting light of Christ."

Differences between constituent bodies must not mar the unity of the Baptist World Movement, Dr. C. Oscar Johnson declared in his official presidential address. At the Sunday afternoon session, Dr. Johnson declared "We must never allow our unity in Christ to be disturbed" by the independent actions of the more than 100 autonomous bodies which make up the Baptist World Alliance, convening agency of the Congress.

Urges Strong Fellowship

The Alliance President noted that Baptist organizations have differed over the question of affiliating with inter-denominational groups and world-wide church organizations. He said Baptists can further their greatest contribution to broaden "Fellowship among Christians by making our fellowship the strongest possible."

"A world fellowship surely is meant for all the people of the world. Baptists are so constituted as to make them well qualified to spread this light to all nations and peoples," he said.

This can be done, Dr. Johnson said, while "Fully recognizing the rights of every individual and the autonomy of every local Baptist church."

The presiding congress official depicted Baptist world solidarity as a "light" opposed to the "black cloud of Communism."

"Let us not forget, he added, that darkness is not confined to Communist-dominated countries. There are sadly neglected areas in all our lands. In this very nation where we meet, there are two sister evils which threaten the light that is in us. Commercialism and Materialism. From these come strife between labor and management, white and colored races."

Bethlehem Burns Notes On Pastorium Jenkins Resigns, Goes To Ga.

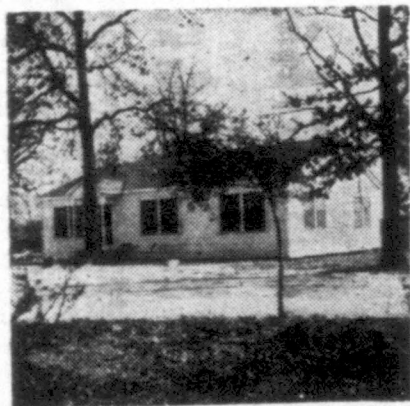

REV. D. C. JENKINS

Bethlehem Church, Jones County, burned the notes on its pastorium Sunday and dedicated the $6,000 home debt-free

The house was completed in August, 1948. Dewey Warren, Charlie Smith, E. P. Putnam, R. C. Balch, and the late P. A. McElroy served as the building committee in erecting the home.

Sunday was also the last day of the pastorate of Rev. D. C. Jenkins, who has resigned to accept the pastorate of the Fellowship church in Smyrna, Ga.

During the last two and one-half years the church membership has increased from 300 to 426. There have been 98 professions of faith and 60 by letter. The Sunday School enrolment has gone from 106 to 231, and the B. T. U. enrolment has increased to 176, with over 100 in average attendance. All the young people's organizations have been added to the W. M. U.

Mr. Jenkins is a graduate of Clarke College and attended the New Orleans Seminary for two years. He is a native Georgian, but has served churches in Mississippi since his ordination. Mrs. Jenkins also graduated from Clarke and attended the seminary. She is W. M. U. young people's director for Jones County.

Bethlehem is an active Jones County church, has the Every Family Plan for the Baptist Record and has donated liberally to the Cooperative Program and missions, the orphanage and Clarke College.

selves would be better off if they were freed from their connection with the state."

Dr. Lewis pointed out that "to attack the Roman Catholic Church in Italy in speech or in print is often regarded as an attack on the state and may be heavily punished." He called attention to Spain where he said the "situation is even still worse."

"Baptists in Europe have been most consistent and persistent advocates of religious liberty and they have organized and maintained churches thereby proving that free churches can exist without state aid."

Dr. Lewis announced that the Baptists of Europe have taken steps to form a European Baptist Federation with the hope that the various Baptist groups there will be able to fortify each other in the world-wide battle for freedom of religion.

Committees Appointed

In a brief business session Dr. T. F. Adams, Richmond, Va., was named chairman of the Business Committee with Dr. M. E. Aubrey, president-elect of the Baptist Union of Great Britain, as co-chairman.

Dr. Johannes Norgaard, principal of the Baptist Theological Seminary, Tollose, Denmark, was named head of the Resolutions Committee, with the Rev. Henry Cook, London, superintendent of the Baptist Churches in London, England, as chairman.

Dr. E. A. Fridell, foreign secretary of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, was named head of the Nominations Committee, with Dr. M. T. Rankin, Southern Baptist Convention Foreign Mission secretary, his co-chairman.

"Out of Tribulation" was the title of a group of three brief addresses from behind the Iron Curtain as three displaced persons told of their experiences. Rev. P. Gordiejew from White Russia spoke, then Miss Tabea Korjus, Estonia, and Rev. Rudolph Ekstein of Latvia. A choir of displaced persons from Latvia sang several numbers preceding the address by the Alliance Associate Secretary Dr. W. O. Lewis.

THE CALVARY CHURCH, COLUMBIA, where Rev. John S. Trent served as pastor until recently, was organized in 1940, rather than in 1947.

1242 Churches Give Through Convention Board Office Jan.-June

The report below, made by J. E. Lane, Mississippi Baptist Convention Board Treasurer, is the record made by the churches in their gifts to the Cooperative Program and to all other causes through the Convention Board office.

There is cause for rejoicing in the hearts of Mississippi Baptists. Gifts for the first six months of 1950 total $673,511, or $15,513 more than for the same period in 1949. Those churches which have given of their substance in this great effort to support the Cause of Christ will take pride in this report. Of 1628 churches in our state, 1242 have already this year had a part in this program. That leaves 386 which have not given anything, either through the Cooperative Program or to Foreign Missions, or any other designated item through the Convention Board office.

If your church is one which has not yet taken part through the Cooperative Program this year, you may change the picture. Let's make it 100 per cent before November 1.

JACKSON, MISS.—(RNS)
—State aid to private and sectarian institutions was opposed here by the Mississippi Methodist Conference. The Conference adopted a resolution sponsored by its committee on hospitals and homes which held that the principle of separation of Church and State was being endangered by "recent near successes in securing tax funds for religious institutions."

WEIR REVIVAL ADDS 23

REV. FREDDIE BRISTER

Weir Church has just closed the greatest revival in the history of the church.

Rev. Freddie Brister, a senior at Mississippi College, a consecrated and gifted young man did the preaching. Mr. Frank Horton, a Junior at Mississippi College led the singing. Edward Whitmire was pianist.

Cottage prayer meetings were held in preparation for the meeting.

There were twenty three additions to the church, sixteen on profession of faith. Two young people surrendered their lives to full time Christian service. Many rededicated their lives to the Lord.

There were 65 enrolled in the Vacation Bible School recently. The mission offering was $5.00.

Rev. J. P. Bush is the Weir pastor.

FOREIGN MISSION ADVANCE

Year's Foreign Appointments Top All Previous Records

Appointment of fourteen new missionaries at the July meeting of the Foreign Mission Board raises the total for the year above the previous record for any other full year.

The total for this year, with five months yet to go, is 83, seven more than were appointed in 1947, the record year. The total number of active missionaries under appointment, as of August 1, is 780, including 15 contract workers.

Chile draws eight of the July appointees: Rev. and Mrs. William P. Andrews, Greensboro, N. C.; Rev. and Mrs. Charles W. Bryan, Sadler, Texas; Rev. and Mrs. Hubert L. Hardy, Jr., Fort Worth, Texas; Rev. and Mrs. Hubert K. Middleton, Anchorage, Ky.

Four are assigned to Brazil: Rev. and Mrs. John S. Oliver, Fort Worth, and Rev. and Mrs. Gene H. Wise, Louisville, Ky.

Rev. and Mrs. W. Harlen McGinnis, Louisville, are assigned to Nigeria.

Korea and Missions

Dr. and Mrs. John A. Abernathy, who were evacuated from Seoul just before the city fell, are remaining in Fukuoka, Japan, for awhile before making any plans for future location. Dr. Abernathy caught a plane from Seoul, carrying only his briefcase out with him, about five hours after Mrs. Abernathy had taken a plane with only one suitcase.

The Korean situation is not affecting mission plans in Japan up to this time, Secretary Baker J. Cauthen told the Foreign Mission Board at its July meeting. Twenty-seven missionaries, the largest group of new recruits ever sent to Japan at one time, are scheduled to sail from San Francisco on August 9. They will join 42 missionaries already in Japan.

Improvement of mission property in Japan is continuing. There is no more reason to hold it up on the prospect of war than to hold up improvement of church property in the United States on the prospect of war, Dr. Cauthen stated. Another war would mean destruction of property in both countries.

Southern Baptist pastors and denominational leaders are still preparing for the two-month preaching mission to Japan in the fall.

The conflict in Korea is causing greater tension in China, Dr. Cauthen said. Some of the missionaries now in Communist-dominated sections are requesting transfer to Chinese-speaking areas outside China, as an alternative to returning to the states.

Foreign Mission Receipts

Foreign mission receipts from all sources totaled $4,106,038.47 for the first six months of this year. Receipts for the same period last year totaled $3,897,021.85.

Total received for World Relief the first half of this year was $37,631.99, as compared with $77,281.43 for the same period last year. The relief receipts are not included in the foreign mission totals given above.

Only three states in the Convention have shown no increase in Cooperative Program receipts for foreign missions during the six-month period, according to Mr. Everette Deane, Treasurer for the Foreign Mission Board.

William Henry Tipton

Dr. William Henry Tipton, 74, missionary emeritus to South China, died June 27 at Black Mountain, N. C.

Appointed in 1904, Dr. Tipton began his service at Wuchow as an evangelistic worker. He was a pioneer in the preparation of graded Sunday school literature for China, working with the China Baptist Publication Society for more than 30 years before his retirement from active missionary service in 1946.

In China at the outbreak of the Japanese war, he was interned in Shanghai from March 1 to September 19, 1943, when he returned to the states on the exchange ship, Gripsholm.

His wife, a son and two daughters survive.

Beginning in Ecuador

Four missionaries are scheduled to begin work in Quito in mid-August as the first Southern Baptist representatives in Ecuador.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Gordon Crocker and Rev. and Mrs. William Haverfield completed their year of language study in Colombia in June and will begin the pioneer work in the new area after a brief visit to the states to obtain entrance visas and equipment.

Among the Missionaries

Missionaries who have recently left the states for foreign stations are: Rev. and Mrs. L. R. Brothers to Nigeria June 30 by boat from New York; Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Harper, Rev. and Mrs. D. N. Mayhall, and Miss Alma Hazel Rohm to Nigeria July 5 by boat from New Orleans.

Those who have recently come to the states for furlough are: Rev. and Mrs. Coleman Clarke, Japan, at 1183 Clifton Road, N. E., Atlanta, Ga.; Rev. and Mrs. Finlay W. Graham, Lebanon, at 808 Gambrell St., Fort Worth, Texas; Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill, China, at 64 W. Seminole Ave., McAlester, Okla.; Rev. and Mrs. J. D. (Continued On Page Thirteen)

Thought Nuggets—

Speak kind words and you will hear kind echoes.

If Jesus is unknown to you, of what use is the rest of your knowledge? God writes with a pen that never blots, speaks with a tongue that never slips, and acts with a hand that never fails.

To expect defeat is nine-tenths of defeat itself.

Of all the things you wear, your expression is the most important. Living without God's plan for your life is like sewing with threadless needles. It is like writing one's name in the water.

Chickasaw Launches Associational Program

Mrs. John Collums of Houka, reporting on the Chickasaw Associational Training Union gives the information that they have recently had a successful mass meeting with the Okolona church serving as hostess. A splendid program "What We Believe" was given by the Houston Training Union with Mrs. John Simpson in charge. Mrs. John Rutledge of Okolona gave the devotional.

Officers elected are, Director, Mrs. H. L. Andrews; Associate Director, Mrs. John Simpson; Secretary, Mrs. C. O. Smith; Pastor-Advisor, Rev. J. W. Kitchens; Chorister, Rev. S. E. Byler; Young People's Leader, Mrs. Bill Hill; Intermediate Leader, Mrs. R. C. Thomson; Junior Leader, A. G. Shepherd; Story Hour Leader, Mrs. John Collums. The Executive Committee met on July 17th, and things are under way for a good year ahead.

Not too early to begin plans for "M" Night. This is the sixth year for this all-south Associational Simultaneous Mass meeting. Begin now to give this meeting publicity, and make it really a "Mobilization Night" meeting. It's to get a good ready for the new year. Make your goal—EVERY CHURCH REPRESENTED—give each church a quote. People like to have a challenge.

You will want these two books: Fentola—a little girl of Africa. This is a true story of a little Nigerian girl, Fentola, and her love for her baby brother. For Story Hour age. Listen to the Drums—a well written account of the impression which a Nigerian makes on a missionary and the influence he exerts among the native people. For Intermediates and Young People.

Brookhaven Had Youth Week In June

Any time is a good time to observe Youth Week. April is suggested as the ideal time, but any time it can be fitted into the general church program is a good time. First Brookhaven had a successful Youth Week in June. They write "the week was a success." The Young People gained a better understanding of the work of the leadership of the church and the adults learned to appreciate the young people. A great spirit was evident throughout the week.

Oxford plans a Youth Week in August. Shuqualak had theirs in February.

We will be glad to send you a leaflet that explains Youth Week. Write us, Box 530, Jackson.

Macedonia In Winston Makes Record

Rev. E. D. Estes, pastor of the Macedonia Church in Winston Co. ever alert in all departments of the church life, gives no little time to his Training Union. In June he organized another Junior union in the church. In their study course in the spring they issued 58 study course awards, 9 Junior, 13 Intermediates and 36 Adult. In addition to promoting the work in his own church, Bro. Estes has helped in several other churches in getting the work better organized, teaching study courses and helping to organize.

Music Leadership School In Attala County

During the week of July 2 through 9, a Central Leadership Music School was held in the First Baptist Church, Kosciusko, for the entire Attala County Baptist Association. W. C. Morgan, Director of Music Promotion in Mississippi, led in the music school, and week of emphasis in music. The County Missionary, Rev. Kenneth Hall led out in promoting the week of music, and through his work, ten churches were actively engaged in the work of the week. Rev. A. B. Pierce, pastor of First Church, Kosciusko, gave his full support, along with several other pastors in the county, to the program.

The Junior group met during the afternoon for rehearsal. The Mass Class was held from 7 to 9 o'clock each evening. The First Baptist Church Choir met for special rehearsal from 9 to 9:45 each evening.

An average attendance in the Mass Class for the week was 106, with ten churches participating. During this period, the major work was a study of the new book "Practical Music Lessons" published by the Sunday School Board. Credit will be given to all who qualified for credit. This is the first course toward the Church Music Diploma which is given by the Music Department of the Sunday School Board.

Special recognition should be given to the fine choir of the First Church, Kosciusko, which worked hard during the week to make the program a success.

A Mass Hymn Festival was held on Sunday afternoon, July 9, at which time the Associational Music Organization was completed.

Asuncion Hospital

Two of the six buildings on the hospital property in Asuncion, Paraguay, are being roofed, two others are at roof level and the other two are above foundations.

Another missionary doctor, Dr. William Skinner, was appointed in March to work with Dr. Franklin Fowler, who now lives with his family on the hospital property. Dr. Fowler's persistent struggle to obtain a medical license in the republic made it possible for Southern Baptists to take the new venture into medical missions in Paraguay.

Italian Gift for Africa

The Italian Woman's Missionary Union sent to the Foreign Mission Board a gift of $780 for the hospital in Joinkrama, Nigeria. The gift constitutes half of the Lottie Moon Offering of Italian Baptist women.

Vacation Bible Schools

Many churches are reporting good Vacation Bible Schools. Have you made your report yet? These reports are revealing. Last year we note that we enrolled over one million three hundred thousand boys and girls in Vacation Bible Schools all over our Convention territory. In our state we had nine hundred and twenty-five schools. Mississippi is about average in matter of enrolment, for our opportunity, for number of boys and girls won to Christ. Dr. Homer Grice says that Southern Baptist churches won over thirty-four thousand boys and girls to Jesus in the Vacation Bible Schools held. We need to increase the number of schools. When we do that we will teach more boys and girls the Bible and we certainly will win more of them to Christ.

Adults

It should challenge us to know that there are literally thousands of our men and women unreached in the churches where we work. Our great problem is an adult one. If we reach adults, we take care of the major matters that ail us. We hear again and again that our adult opportunities are unlimited. In fact we have heard it so many times until we are growing a sort of immunity to the bigness of this matter. Where Southern Baptists work they tell us there are over 32 million adults not enrolled in Sunday Schools. If we took one third of that number as our possibilities, we would have over 10 million to work for now. Perhaps the bigness of this matter would dawn on us if we took a close census of the community where we live and see what it means where we live and work. Certainly we have too many, in any church, that we are not reaching.

It is a shocking matter to learn the number of adults in the average church unenlisted. We have got them to walk the aisle of the church, we have baptized them, but we have not taught them to "observe all things" that Christ commanded. Why do we know this? Too many of them, in our churches, do not produce. They do not bear fruit. Should we stop there? If we do our jobs we cannot sit down and bemoan the fact that so many of them do nothing, but the large number, doing nothing, should challenge us. Below we list again a program that will work where you are. This will get many of these adults enlisted, in harness, on the production line:

- We need to start more units, more classes for them.
- We need to train our workers for adult classes and Departments.
- We need to grade and promote adults.
- We need to utilize class officers.
- We need to promote visitation for adults.

Necessary tools for workers with adults: The books of the Sunday School training course. We have three of these, A. Adults in Sunday School; A. Understanding Adults; C. Teaching Adults in the Sunday School. Mr. Phillips is the writer of the first book and Dr. Dobins is the writer of the last two. These books may be had from the Baptist Book Store, Jackson, Mississippi.

Last year in our churches, and Mississippi is average, we baptized one person for each three lost enrolled in the Sunday School. The others we baptized was in ratio to one out of every 371 possibilities for church membership in our communities where we work as Southern Baptists. The Sunday School and Evangelism? It is the heart of the function of a Sunday School to win people to Christ. When they come through the Sunday School we are also getting our greatest opportunity to hold them in classes that we might teach them to do all that Christ has commanded that we do as His people.

Sunday School Lesson

Prepared by Bracey Campbell
July 30

DAVID, A KING WHOM GOD HONORED. II Samuel 5:1-6; 6-7; 9; 22; Psalm 24; 51.

I. GOD THE SHAPER OF DAVID'S LIFE

You and the committee have it your way, if you like, and call the lesson, "David, a King Who Honored God." But allow me to think that the important character in this lesson is not David but God. And that the same is true of every great character who has shaped the destinies of men and women who came of ordinary origin, romped and played on the level of the ordinary, grew up in the obscurity of the lot and light of the ordinary horde or mob, if you will.

Then one day it began to become plain that they were a bit unusual, and often this fact was interpreted to mean that the individual in such a case was odd and peculiar and queer. And such a man or woman might become looked upon as a messenger and servant of unusual gifts, even while still living, a servant of some power above themselves. As a result of the labors of this servant, the world was made better for all time. All this because, not only of the man's or woman's election so much as the appointment of the Almighty.

David had great capacities, yes; but how could a shepherd lad who could sing and play a pipe or fiddle or a banjo, and dance, hope, by these accomplishments, to ascend a throne and sway the scepter of authority over God's heritage? Well, the answer is, he could not, unless he dwelt among the moon-gazers and might rightly be designated a lunatic.

Here was a lad out in the pasture with the sheep, having no knowledge that a prophet was in his home until a messenger came from the house to say that the shepherd boy was wanted there. The shepherd boy went, not knowing why he had been sent for until the hand of God's prophet moved and the oil of consecration was upon the shepherd's ruddy hair! God took David from following the sheep and made him the ruler of God's chosen people, took from David his shepherd's staff and placed in his hand a scepter, took him from a small green vale where loitering sheep contentedly munched the grass and set him on Mount Zion.

Of course, David went! Oh, not "of course" at all! Could have acted the part of another Esau, another Saul, another Judas! Wonder how often men and women stand in the morning at the parting of the ways and, after a bit of deliberation or without any, turn back to following the silly sheep!

II. GOD TRAINS DAVID FOR HIS GREAT WORK

1. He caused David to be anointed, set apart, designated to a high station. 2. He gave David victory over Goliath, and that in a combat so unequal that the victory was impossible. 3. He kept David safe from the persecutions of Saul, while Saul was possessed of resources sufficient to have swept David from the earth with one smiting swing of his sovereign power. 4. He gave David a friend in the person of Jonathan, son of Saul—a friend who stuck closer than a brother in David's hour of danger. 5. He gave David his chance in the rulership of Judah and Benjamin—a chance to do a small job well in preparation for a larger one.

And when David had learned to trust in God and lean out on his own understanding, to honor God in all his living, to perform well the work in hand in the knowledge that it was the work of his Lord, when he had learned obedience to

SOSO VBS ENROLLS 157

First Church of Soso had its Bible School recently 26-30 with a record-breaking enrolment of 157 and an average attendance of 140. The pastor, F. H. Rogers, was in charge of the boys handwork; Mrs. Sam Gunter served as principal; Mrs. Jack Coats, assistant principal; Miss Jo Ann Waldrup, secretary; Miss Almee Jean Tindall, music.

Other workers in the school were: Mrs. Gibson Wade, Mrs. Charles Hilbun, Mrs. Charles Ray Green, Mrs. Verl Bush, Mrs. Clifford Knight, Mrs. Maxwell Coats, Mrs. Dannie Hathorn, Mrs. Herman White, Mrs. Carol Sims, Mrs. Lester Green, Mrs. F. H. Rogers, Mrs. B. F. Valentine, Mrs. Lawrence Ingram, Misses Emma Jean Shows, Beatrice Brownlee and Blanche Hathorn.

Refreshments were served each day by the ladies of the W. M. S.

The following inspirational pantomimes were presented by the Juniors and Intermediates at the commencement. "The Good Samaritan," "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Turn Your Upon Jesus."

God by the things he had suffered, God set him up on high and made him the mightiest and most highly honored ruler in all the long line of those reigned in the storied land of Israel.

III. GOD LEADS DAVID IN HIS LARGER WORK

"Well, why give God all the glory? Was not David there with his unusual ability?" Sounds a bit like some of the reports we used to read of the revival meetings "held" by certain of the prominent brethren. The skilful report would loudly ascribe all the glory to God, but would still be so framed as to convey the impression that it was not a misfortune to Him that the Lord had that particular brother on the job.

God called and qualified David, David yielded to God's qualifying process as he had answered God's call, and thus God made firm the foundations of David's throne and made him to be father of many kings, and finally of that Eternal King, Who as King of Kings and Lord of Lords shall sit upon David's throne forever.

IV. GOD SHAPES DAVID'S PLANS

He led David to bring the ark out of the land of the Philistines to Jerusalem and to induct the ark into its new residence with appropriate ceremonies. Jerusalem had become the center of the nation's life, and it must be primarily of the nation's religious life. But the Lord shaped David's plan for a temple by a prohibition.

You will see, however, that God honored David because he had desired to build the temple. "What I would have been and was not comforts me." God will always take note of the man or woman who desires to do some great good thing for him. We do not desire to do the best we can in vain. Men are lifted up by their pure and great plans and purposes and dreams of the great things undertaken and accomplished for God, are never the same afterwards, buy ever a bit better for the desire and aim.

WATER VALLEY REMAINS DRY

A local option election was held in Water Valley on July 18. The Drys won the election by a vote of 440 against legal sale of beer to 227 for legal sale of beer.

The beer dealers put up a strong fight to carry the town into the wet column. They are doing this in every place where an election is being held. They hatch up and circulate all kinds of false propaganda to confuse the minds of voters. We should always remember that all of the argument is against beer; there is not one good thing that can be said in its favor. Lincoln said, "Liquor may have its defenders, but it has no defense."

I find an increasing conviction among Christian people that beverage alcohol must go, or we must pay a terrific price for tolerating it.

Please remember these other elections in our prayers.

Hits Church Dancing

Houston, Tex.—(RNS)—"When a church loses its power with God and men it begins to entertain its members with a dance program," declared L. L. Roloff of Corpus Christi before a Christian Business Men's Luncheon here. "The dance program is about equal to a coke and an aspirin for a cancer cure," he said. Mr. Roloff further declared that if civilization is to be saved and America delivered from being "the land of the spree and the home of the slave," God's power is necessary.

New "HARMONY OF THE GOSPELS" By Former Mississippian Is Widely Acclaimed

Publication by DR. JOHN F. CARTER Climaxes 23 Years of New Testament Teaching

"I weigh my thoughts and measure my words when I say this is the greatest, most thorough, most complete Harmony of the Gospels that has ever been put out at any time by any man." —A. D. MUSE in THE HARVESTER.

"This work is the result of 23 years' experience in teaching the New Testament. It is less technical than many seminary textbooks, and thus more easily studied. Any earnest student of the Bible will find this book helpful." —A. L. GOODRICH, in THE BAPTIST RECORD.

"Dr. Carter is a superior interpreter of the Word, and he renders invaluable service to the student in all . . . notes and comments. There is no other Harmony just like this one. To put it mildly, wide use of this timely work should be made by teachers of the Gospels in all our schools, colleges, and Bible Institutes." —T. D. BROWN, in THE MOUNTAIN VOICE.

"A most excellent book for use in studying the earthly life and ministry of our Lord. Every Sunday School teacher, Bible student and pastor should have this book." —D. B. EASTEP, in THE UPLOOK.

"I like the way you have organized it, the material, the sections, the notes—in fact, I like everything about it." —R. P. MAHON, 23 years a professor at Baptist Bible Institute (now New Orleans Seminary).

"I consider the Harmony one of the most practical that I have examined. It is down to earth where students on the high school and junior college level, along with many pastors without degrees from seminaries can very readily use it. The notes are unusually helpful and practical. It is good for the class room or the home library." —W. E. GREENE, President, Mississippi Baptist Convention.

Home Board Rural Worker

DR. FREEMAN'S SUCCESSOR

Rev. James T. Gillespie, city superintendent of missions of Greenville, South Carolina, has been transferred to the Home Mission Board's department of rural work to succeed Dr. John D. Freeman who is now secretary of the Baptist Foundation of Arkansas. Brother Gillespie is a native of North Carolina and graduated from Wake Forest and from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has served as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Fayetteville, Arkansas, and as professor of Bible and Greek in Oklahoma Baptist University and North Greenville Junior College. Since 1948 he has been in city mission work at Greenville.

The rural church program of the Home Mission Board in cooperation with state mission boards has revitalized many rural churches since the inauguration of the south-wide program. A recent conference of state secretaries and workers in the rural church program held in Atlanta re-emphasized the importance of serving the rural south.

STATE SECRETARIES CONFER ON FIVE-YEAR CRUSADE

Representatives from sixteen states, including ten executive secretaries of state boards, conferred with the Home Mission Board staff on the Five Year Home Mission Crusade which is in operation. The first year of the Crusade is devoted to evangelism. The second year will be devoted both to evangelism and church extension. It is the conviction of those who were present that more mission stations and more churches are needed to serve many new converts and to enlist more Baptist people in the Southern Baptist Advance Program if the advance is to be continued. State superintendents of evangelism and cooperative missions joined the state secretaries in the conference and gave valuable support to the promotion of the Five-Year Crusade. In addition to the soul-winning emphasis and the establishing of more mission stations and churches the program has a goal of indoctrination and better witnessing for the Lord. More converts, more missions, more churches, more witnesses and better witnessing, and better support for the Advance Program are well included in the Five-Year Crusade.

State and Home Mission Board representatives were agreed that world mission advance must be implemented and sustained by a strong home front united in promoting kingdom interests. The emphasis of the

"The Lord Hath Visited Us"

By REV. HOMER AINSWORTH

You will be interested as well as all Christians to know of our recent experience with the Lord in our revival at Spring Hill, Simpson County.

Beginning Sunday, July 9, both with morning and afternoon services were held. On Monday evening we met and as usual went immediately into various prayer groups for men, women and young people.

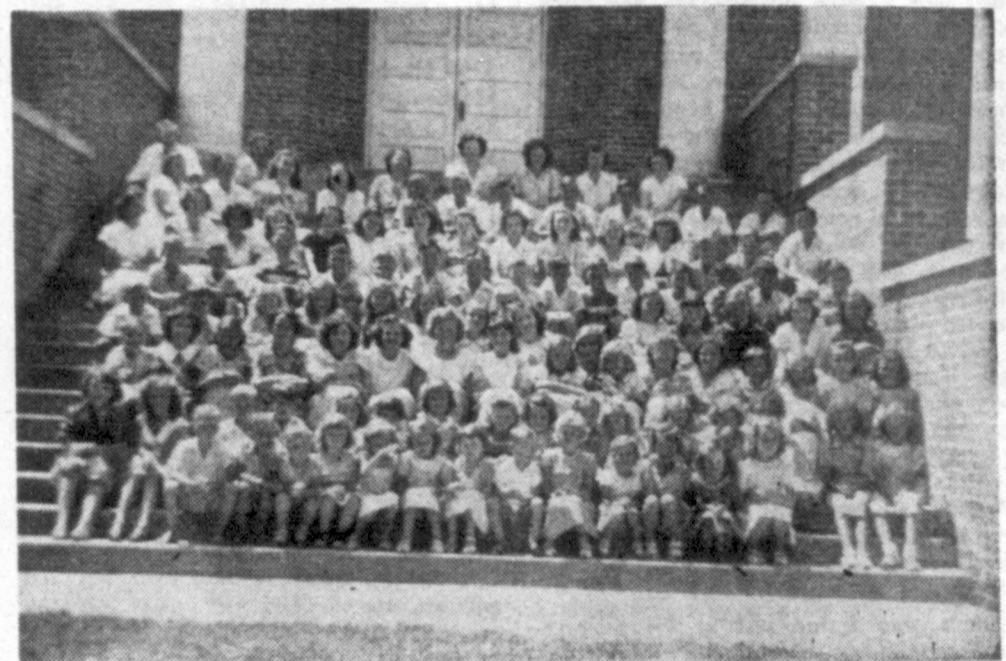

In the ladies prayer group several led in chain of prayer and to close the prayer was a fine, sweet, spirited, Christian mother, Mrs. Susie Ann Smith Lee, who in the words of her prayer asked the Lord's blessings upon the church and community in the return of all the people back to God in the ties of brotherly love and love for ones neighbor and a manifestation of an out pouring of a great soul stirring revival of humility and love, and upon closing her prayer with amen she fell, without another word spoken upon the ground into eternal sleep in the arms of Jesus. Thus she literally fulfilled the eternal command of our Lord, "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life."

Thru to the closing of our revival Friday night all the people expressed their hearts' feelings that "Surely the Lord hath visited us in a great revival."

Shown above is the group who attended the Vacation Bible School which was held at Philipp Church. There were 109 enrolled with 13 faculty members. A large crowd attended the commencement exercises at the close of the school. Rev. James G. Haggard is the pastor.
